With 2 fabulous locations for your dining pleasure, Spice by Chris Salans offers an affordable experience of his culinary expertise which applies French cooking techniques to Indonesian ingredients. All ingredients are locally sourced, with an emphasis on the flavors and healing properties of Indonesia's aromatic roots, herbs, and spices. The cuisine joyfully combines the humble and the precious, as in Slipper lobster with curry-leaf butter and tempé, or Snapper carpaccio with tamarind croutons and rujak.

Nothing beats the experience of dining in a humble Indonesian warung. That homey dining place serving freshly prepared home-cooked fares, with no-nonsense, very laidback environment at affordable prices. At My Warung you will find around 16 dishes, priced IDR 20K to IDR 75K (around USD $2 to $6) each but will nevertheless reflect the precise seasoning, layered flavoring and exacting technique chef Coudurier's cuisines are known for. You have to try the steak and the lamb chops. Actually everything is delicious.

WATERING HOLES
Akademi Seminyak
Tel: +623614737979 Yak Map N.5
www.akademi-bar.com
Our top watering stop is Akademi; a modern bar-cum-library built of concrete and beautifully lit. A turntable spins vintage records, softening the sharp edges. Our favourite cocktail you ask? The Mamarita, with its sweet sour rim served in a hand made ceramic vessel. Other talking points? Soft lights illuminate shelves filled with jars that resemble chemistry experiments and turn out to be infusions of arak, a surprising ingredient in many of the cocktails, A definite vibe happening here, a scene set to seduce and happily so, it really works.
