BALINESE DANCE

The Amphitheatre at The Oberoi Bali
Tel: +62361730361  Yak Map O.9
www.oberoihotels.com

Seminyak’s only amphitheatre stages classical performances of Balinese dance and theatre in an unrivalled setting. In true Oberoi elegance one can dine and experience the dances that put Bali on the global travel map all those years ago. On Thursdays and Saturdays, the talented dance troupe regale diners with epic tales of Ramayana or bend and sway while interpreting the Barong Dance or Legong, or even the well-loved Kecak. Check with the hotel’s concierge for bookings and dance performances, especially during the rainy season November to April.

Tugu Hotel  Batu Bolong
Tel: +623614731701
www.tuguhotels.com

For a night of pure Balinese history book a table beside the majestic stage of Tugu’s Bale Agung. With the giant 5 meter tall 130 year old wooden Garuda as the backdrop under the 14 meter tall roof you will feel transported back in time. These rare dance performances, in danger of becoming extinct, are alive and well at Tugu - Bali’s only Museum hotel.

BAR ON THE BEACH
